In an Averatile puzzle, every shape must be filled with a positive digit according to two rules:

1. The number in each square is the average of all the numbers in the triangles that the square shares a side with.
2. No two shapes that share a side may contain the same digit.
In an Averatile puzzle, every shape must be filled with a positive digit according to two rules:

1. The number in each square is the average of all the numbers in the triangles that the square shares a side with.

2. No two shapes that share a side may contain the same digit.
In an Averatile puzzle, every shape must be filled with a positive digit according to two rules:

1. The number in each square is the average of all the numbers in the triangles that the square shares a side with.
2. No two shapes that share a side may contain the same digit.

Make your own!